

Welcome to individualized post-high school planning for juniors
(Class of 2019) at New Trier High School

New Trier's formal post-high school planning process begins in the spring of the junior year; after the initial meeting and spring break, students will meet with their counselor regularly throughout the remainder of the junior and the entire senior year.

Before the initial meeting, each junior must complete a student data form and self-evaluation in adviser room. These forms provide the counselor with background information essential to tailoring the initial meeting to the student's expectations. Without the student's forms, scheduled meet-ings may be canceled on short notice; please make sure your student has completed and submitted this to the adviser in December.

A copy of each student's fifth-semester transcript is sent home in early March. Both the student and parent should review every aspect of the document for accuracy.

Please complete the "Preparing to make the initial family appointment" section of this flyer with your student before calling on the designated date.

Read this first!

Appointments begin at 8:00 AM and run through school day until the last meeting time of 3:30 PM. There are no 3:30 meetings on Fridays.

Initial meetings will begin on Tuesday, February 20, 2018.

Appointments last forty minutes, or one class period. Students may miss advisery for the meeting, but cannot be excused from any class.

Parents will be able to call to arrange the first appointment on the day specifically assigned to their particular counselor; for example, parents of students in Mr. Greaux's advisery may call January 11. If you miss your day, please wait until January 23 to call to schedule an appointment.

The chart below indicates when calls can be made for the assigned post-high school counselor.

Because of the volume of calls, voice mail messages left outside of regular school hours (8:00 AM to 3:00 PM) will not be returned.

Parents need not do any preparation before the meeting.

A complete list of counselor assignments by adviser and the corresponding dates for calling can be found below.

Preparing to make the initial family appointment

Key points to consider when scheduling:

- Initial appointments are to be attended by the student and parent(s).
- Appointments are for 40 minutes.
- Students are never allowed to miss class for meetings.
- Meetings start February 20 and continue throughout the spring.
- Families with multiple students in the same graduating class may make both/all appointments on the earlier date.
