COMPLAINTS ABOUT CURRICULUM, INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS, AND PROGRAMS

Persons with complaints about curriculum, instructional materials, and programs should express their objection(s) in writing to the Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction and follow the District's "Uniform Grievance Procedure" (Policy 2.260). Parents/guardians may request that their child be exempt from using a particular instructional material or program by completing a "Curriculum Objection Form" available from the Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction's office and following the District's "Uniform Grievance Procedure."
