V. Communications (following the All School Seminar Update)

Mr. Robitaille began the Public Comment section of the meeting by providing guidelines and ground rules, specifically noting that his request for all to listen, be civil and respectful, assume positive intent and be open to all comments. The Board will listen to as many speakers as time will allow. Mr. Robitaille noted that due to the large number of communication request forms completed for the evening, the time allotted for the Communication portion of the agenda would be increased to one hour. He asked that speakers limit themselves to three minutes which would allow more time for as many speakers as possible in the increased time limit. Twenty speakers shared their thoughts on the All School Seminar Day scheduled for February 28 at New Trier High School. Discussions among speakers covered topics related to civil rights, discrimination, race, poverty, dialogue, debate, politics, Illinois school code, and diversity of opinion.

Speakers included Callie Baker, Ally Freemond, Colby Vargas, Pastor Corey Brooks, Isabelle Hauser, Mimi Rodman, Mark Weyermuller, Julia Stoller, Betsy Hart, Arielle Imber, Tony Duncan, Richard Jo, Cara Gaziano, Dr. Robert Soare, Ami Campbell, Brett Zaslavsky, Carl Lambecht, Ryan Evenson and Ryan Cason.
